

DOCTOR IN PAIN, BUT BARS ETHER

Physician Comes from Brooklyn to Bellevue to Have Dislocated Shoulder Set Rather Than Take the Drug.

Dr. D. Burton of No. 84 North Ninth street, Brooklyn, well-known in the Eastern District, to-day called at the Bellevue Hospital and informed Dr. Johnson, that he had a badly dislocated left shoulder and was in considerable pain.

Dr. Burton explained that while in one of the Brooklyn Hospitals to-day, an alcoholic patient threw him down a flight of stairs. He said he wanted surgery in the hospital to set the dislocation, but they refused unless ether was administered, and this Dr. Burton refused to permit.

Dr. Burton said he then went to several private physicians, but they all wanted to administer ether. As a last resource he went to Bellevue to see if the dislocation could not be reduced without his taking the drug.

Dr. Johnson is a powerful man, and, after "sitting" up Dr. Burton to see if he could stand the excruciating pain which follows and accompanies such an operation, he remarked: "Well, we'll do what we can for you."

Dr. Johnson sent for several other physicians and some other attendants, and then backed Dr. Burton against the wall. After finding the exact place of the dislocation, he seized the arm and gave three desperate tugs, which appeared as if they would pull the arm off. Dr. Burton only clenched his teeth and did not murmur, but the bones suddenly snapped into place with a click. The arm was then bandaged and Dr. Burton, after expressing his thanks by tipping some of the attendants, drove away in a cab.

JUSTICE'S NEPHEW PLEADS GUILTY TO LARCENY.

Matthew F. Laughlin Collected $300 from Insurance Company on Fraudulent Claims.

Matthew F. Laughlin, twenty-nine years old, of No. 2394 Seventh avenue, a nephew of Justice Laughlin, of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, pleaded guilty before Judge McMahon, in Part I. of the Court of General Sessions, to a charge of grand larceny in the second degree, brought by the Aetna Life Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., by which he was formerly employed as an adjuster.

He was arrested on May 10, after the police had been looking for him for more than a year, the crime having been committed in June, 1904. Laughlin will be sentenced next Wednesday.

While acting as an adjuster for the company it was charged Laughlin collected $300 from it on a false damage claim. He represented that one Joseph Daly, a driver for a department store, was injured in collision and that he would give a quit claim on the alleged accident policy held by the company for $100.

Laughlin got the money and gave the company's agents a paper which purported to be Daly's quit claim and disappeared. Investigation showed that no such person as Daly was employed by the department store company.

After several months of watching Laughlin was arrested. He asked to be allowed to go back to work for the company and pay back the amount of the theft, but the officials would not permit such an arrangement.

NOT MUCH COLDER THAN LAST JUNE, AFTER ALL.

A comparison of the temperatures by days for the past two weeks of this year and for 1904 shows very little variation, though we are apt to presume, in view of the chilly weather of the past few days, that summer for the present year is giving us a rough deal.

The records of the weather man show that the mean temperature of the past two weeks was 65 degrees Fahrenheit. For the corresponding two weeks a year ago the mean temperature was only 69, only four degrees warmer. When four degrees are spread over two weeks they really show a very little variation.

MUST GET A LICENSE TO SHAVE OR GO TO JAIL.

Commissioner Saracena Has an Unpleasant Barber Held for Trial in Special Sessions.

Michael Saracena, head of the State Board of Barber Examiners, and by virtue of his position entitled to be called "Commissioner," was the complainant in Yorkville Police Court to-day against Frank Liguori, a humble enemy of whiskers and long hair, employed in a barber shop at No. 116 Third avenue. Commissioner Saracena charged Liguori with scraping faces, trimming hair and aquiring sweet-smelling water upon patrons of the barber shop without possessing a State license entitling him to so perform. Liguori admitted that he had no license. He said the reason was that a license costs $5. This was a weakly reason, but it had no effect upon the Commissioner. Commissioner Saracena, the law must be respected. Likewise the barbers must pay for their license to barb. The Board of Barber Examiners need the money.

Liguori was held for trial in the Court of Special Sessions. He can be fined $10, or sent to jail for thirty days; or he can avoid punishment by taking out a license—if he can raise the price. "The law will be enforced strictly all over the State," said Commissioner Saracena to-day. "But especially in Greater New York. Let barbers beware. Saracena never sleeps."

JURY WILL PROBE CRUELTY CHARGES

(Special to The Evening World.)

MOUNT VERNON, N. Y., June 9.—The Westchester County Grand Jury, which has been investigating for two days the alleged brutal treatment of several boys at the Westchester Temporary Home for Destitute Children, which is supported principally by the money of a number of rich men and women, adjourned to-day, but Assistant District Attorney Weeks said it will be continued on next Monday.

It is reported that the Grand Jury men have been aroused by certain testimony given by George Lamb and Ralph Schenck, who bared their backs to show the cuts and black and blue spots, which they say were inflicted by keepers, and will make a thorough investigation.

It is reported that Willie Helwig, a twelve-year-old boy who told Magistrate Zeller that he escaped from the home because he had been beaten and placed in a cage-like cell, will be called as a witness. Magistrate Zeller refused to send the boy back to the home because he believed that the boy had been cruelly treated.

It is said that a piece of rubber hose was used in beating some of the boys and that it will be produced as evidence before the Jurymen.

Kept His Word.

(From the Yonkers Statesman.) Mrs. Redd—Didn't you tell me you were going to cut down your expenses. Mr. Redd—I did.

"And, here, you've been betting on the races to-day? Does that look like it?" "Why, yes, dear; I only bet on two races to-day. I usually bet on all of them!"
